

DENSLOW, Charles Jack

Charles Jack Denslow (known as Jack) born in Membury in 1893. His parents were John Denslow, a stonemason (b 1864 in Membury) and Emma (b 1868 in Offwell).

In 1901 the family lived on Greendown, Membury: John (37) and Emma (33) and siblings, Jack (8), Mabel (5), Jim (4) and Margaret (1).

In 1911 Charles Jack Denslow, aged 18, was living on Greendown with his grandfather Job Denslow (75) and Betsey R Back (66)

His brother Jim also served in the war. Medal record in the name of Charles J Denslow – Devonshire Regiment 4154 and 202024.

In spring of 1921 Charles J Denslow married Daisy Spiller from Higher Farm, Dalwood (reg. in Axminster) and they had a child Margaret in the summer of 1928.

Charles Jack Denslow of Rices, Membury died 23 February 1949 (reg in Exeter) and mentioned in probate was his widow Daisy Evelyn Denslow and daughter Margaret Denslow.