

HUNT, Fred

Fred Hunt was born in Upottery and in 1888. His parents were Oliver and Elizabeth Hunt.

In 1891 they lived in Upottery with their children: Stephen (21), Eliza (16), Jessie (11), Mary(9), Martha (7), James(4) and Fred (2).

In 1901 Fred was living with Thomas and Mary Broom at Ulcomb Cottage, Upottery and was working as a farm servant (aged 13).

In 1911, Fred was a farm labourer, aged 23, and lived at Mount Pleasant Upottery with his mother Elizabeth (aged 63) and a John Doble (aged 33)

There was a Fred Hunt born in the Axminster district in 1867 and a record of a marriage between a Fred Hunt and Edith L Drew registered in Axminster in the winter of 1915.

The only Hunt connection that we could find in Membury as in 1901, there was a William Hunt (42) living with his wife Ann G and son Albert (17) and working as a Gamekeeper living at Middlemoor. Also there was a Bessie A Hunt (nee Larcombe) who was born in Membury was living with her husband Gilbert Hunt and their 2 year old daughter Ada in Tamerton Foliot.
